Zebra and Crocodile

Story: Joshua S. Madumulla

Illustrations: Arnold Birungi

Zebra and Crocodile were great friends.
Crocodile lived in the caves of Ruaha River.

Zebra lived among the bushes and the tender, sweet grass.

Zebra often went down to the river to visit her friend Crocodile and to drink the fresh river water.

After some time, Crocodile noticed that Zebra looked fat and juicy.

Suddenly, he felt rather hungry.

When Zebra next visited Crocodile, her friend was nowhere to be seen. “Help, help! I am drowning!” came a cry from the river.

Zebra threw herself into the river to rescue her poor dying friend. “Hahahahaaa! Yum! Now I am going to eat you!” laughed Crocodile.

“Oh no you are not, bad friend!”
shouted Zebra as she kicked Crocodile hard on his long jaw.

“Phew, that was a narrow escape!”
panted Zebra, trotting away.
